ORDER:

The Director General, Anti-Corruption Bureau, in his letter 1st read above, has informed that the Anti-Corruption Bureau authorities have conducted searches on the offices of liquor syndicates all over the State in the year 2013 and registered cases involving Prohibition & Excise officials on the allegations of their criminal misconduct /conspiracy with liquor syndicate persons and after completing the enquiry, submitted final report in respect of SPSR Nellore Excise District, wherein he has recommended for prosecution / Tribunal for Disciplinary Proceedings / Commissioner of Inquiries on the Prohibition & Excise Officials. In respect of Sri D.Premananda Reddy, Chief Manager, IML Deport, Nellore District, now retired, the Director General, Anti-Corruption Bureau, has recommended for departmental action by placing him on his defence before Commissioner of Inquiries.

2. In the reference 2nd read above, Sri D.Premananda Reddy, Chief Manager, IML Deport (Retired), has stated that charges were framed against him on the allegation of involvement in liquor syndicate case in Nellore District and he has submitted his W.S.D. and requested to drop further action against him. Further he has requested for release of Encashment of Earned Leave in terms of the orders issued in G.O.Rt.No.1097, Finance & Planning (FW.Pen.I) Department, dt. 26-2-2000 as was done in the case of Sri K.Kondala Rao, Deputy Commissioner (Retired).

3. Government, after careful examination of the representation of Sri D.Premananda Reddy, have observed that the charges framed against him are for supervisory lapses on his subordinates and does not relate to any misappropriation of Government funds. Government have therefore, decided to release the leave encashment to him.

4. Accordingly, Government hereby order to release the Earned leave encashment to Sri D.Premananda Reddy, Chief Manager, IML Deport (Retired).
